House Rejects O.P.A. Request For More Funds

Action In Senate On Issue To Determine Future Existence Of Remaining O. P. A.

PRICE CONTROL MAY END FRIDAY

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(INS)—The question of whether sugar and rent controls will collapse Friday rested squarely today with the senate.

The skeletonized remains of OPA were dealt a severe blow when the house rejected the agency's request for five million 900 thousand dollars to continue its remaining controls until June 30 and voted to rescind nine million dollars already authorized.

Price Chief Max McCullough immediately issued a warning that if the senate takes similar action, the agency will have only enough funds to operate through Friday. He said: "If this goes through several million tenants who now have the protection of eviction controls and rent ceilings will be without that protection."

Will Be No Funds
"It also means that there will be no funds available to continue the sugar rationing program and to maintain the price ceiling on sugar."

McCullough said all enforcement and compliance activities and sales controls in connection with the veterans housing program also would have to be terminated.

Administration officials were hopeful that part of the reductions will be restored by the senate but influential Republicans in the upper house have been even more outspoken in condemning the OPA as "the New Deal Gestapo."

Action on the OPA funds was taken when the house passed by a 320 to 25 vote and sent to the senate an appropriation bill which slashes 56 percent off President (Continued on Page Two)

PA NEW OBSERVES

Today marks the beginning of Lent.
Idea of a permanent billboard on the Public Square for propaganda efforts doesn't appeal to Pa. News. The Public Square has been transformed by the city into something of a beauty spot through hard work in recent years and erecting a permanent billboard on it, doesn't seem to fit the picture.

There are still some streets from which the rails used by the street cars years ago have not as yet been removed, it is noted. The rails, however, were removed from most of the streets during the war.

House roofs are generally installed during the summer time, but Pa. News espied two roofers busily engaged in the East Side section of the city on Tuesday afternoon laying a roof on a residence. The early afternoon sunshine was a boon to the workers it was discovered.

In the odd sights department, Pa. News discovered a pleasure car traversing the city streets on Tuesday, hauling two very large tires that were almost as tall as the auto itself. They were evidently being transported to the rural area to be installed on a piece of farm equipment.

Jay walking continues in the downtown section of the city. Some of the pedestrians start across the street at any point with little regard to oncoming traffic and causing numerous close shaves. Only good brakes on the autos and trucks prevent more serious accidents.

The second floor room in the local post office of the collector of internal revenue is receiving many visitors both young and old these days, Pa. News observes. Less (Continued on Page Two)

Declares Freight Car Shortage Is Acute

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(INS)—Sen. Reed (R) Kan., declared today that the present acute shortage of freight cars is the most serious threat now facing American industry.

Reed, chairman of a Senate interstate commerce subcommittee investigating the freight car crisis, blamed the steel industry for the lack of railway equipment in which to haul materials vital to the nation's economy. He said:

Answer To Problem
"The answer to the problem is more freight cars. It is up to the steel industry to supply the steel for those cars. So far, the industry has shown too little interest in making that steel available.

"The reason for that is that the steel people can make more profit doing business elsewhere. It is time that they are made aware of the real crisis we have in this matter."

The senator said that a round-table conference has been scheduled by his subcommittee for February 27, at which railroad, steel, and government spokesmen will be heard.

Allocations Expire March 31

Await Congress Action On Final Lend-Lease Shipment To Russia

By GEORGE DURNO
(U. S. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(INS)—State department officials emphasized today that armaments and war munitions are not included in the final twenty-five million dollars worth of lend-lease shipments they desire to send to Soviet Russia.

A spokesman for the office of lend-lease administration said a sizeable portion of the wartime order was made up according to Russian specifications. The U. S. government, he indicated, would not find a ready or profitable market for the goods in this country. Conflicting voltages, gauges, etc., were cited.

A large part of Russia's last requisition consists of heavy parts for oil refineries, other industrial equipment, and for electric motors. (Continued on Page Two)

New Violence In Palestine Now Feared

JERUSALEM, Feb. 19.—(INS)—Fear of increasing violence by the Jewish underground spread throughout Palestine today following a new series of incidents.

Some quarters termed renewed underground action the end to an uneasy truce following Britain's decision to let the United Nations determine the future of the Holy Land.

In the first of the incidents which began yesterday four British soldiers were hurt when an electrically detonated mine blew up an army truck.

Explosions also were reported at railway stations at Nabulus and Schechem, midway between Haifa and Jerusalem.

No loss of life was reported in these incidents, although there was considerable property damage.

Police accounts attributed the separate attacks to work of the radical Stern gang.

Crown Prince Saud Of Arabia Leaves On Truman's Plane

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(INS)—Crown Prince Saud of Saudi Arabia left Washington at 12:15 p. m. (EST) today aboard President Truman's personal airplane, "The Sacred Cow," bound for his homeland by way of England.

The chief executive made the giant C-54 available to the crown prince for the trip as a gesture of friendship.

Saud was accompanied by his retinue of sheikhs, retainers and bodyguards.

The Arabian dignitary spent more than a month in the United States, visiting many of the nation's principal cities.

He paid farewell visits to Mr. Truman and Secretary of State Marshall before his departure.

A spokesman for the Air Transport Command said the plane was expected to land at Stephenville, Newfoundland, in about five hours.

British Hoping Some Restrictions May Be Modified

Prime Minister Expected To Make Announcement Of Relief During Day

(BULLETIN)

LONDON, Feb. 19.—(INS)—Prime Minister Clement Richard Attlee told the House of Commons today that electric power to industry in the Midlands area of England would be restored Monday.

He said that domestic and non-industrial cuts must remain in force. The prime minister said he could not state when power will resume in other areas.

LONDON, Feb. 19.—(INS)—Official circles indicated that Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee may announce the lifting of some restrictions on use of electricity today when he goes before the House of Commons.

These sources predicted Attlee will have good news to give Britons whose normal activity has been severely restricted by the shortage of coal.

Other quarters suggested that there may be a complete showdown on the entire fuel situation when the prime minister is questioned in Parliament.

Expect Some Relief

Attlee's initial announcement is expected to disclose preliminary measures to relieve some of the restrictions imposed as a result of the fuel crisis.

Final details or measures to be taken are being worked out by government experts. These decisions will be presented to the cabinet before Attlee appears in Commons.

Informed quarters declared it is clear the government will move cautiously now that the immediate crisis is over and Attlee is expected to warn that very careful planning is necessary for the future.

C.I.O. And A.F.L. Ready To Start Merger Talks

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(INS)—Two committees of top AFL and CIO leaders stand ready for peace talks today if an agreement can be reached on the agenda of such conferences.

The AFL wants to give immediate consideration to the possibility of a merger of the big American labor organizations of more than twelve million members.

The CIO desires first to work out a common program to combat anti-labor legislation and then proceed to the larger issue of amalgamation.

CIO President Philip Murray today offered to sit down with AFL President William Green and work out an agreement to eliminate jurisdictional strife between the two big American labor organizations.

Murray submitted the proposal during testimony before the Senate Labor committee. Murray proposed:

"Have your committee send for Mr. Green of the AFL, bring him here and let him and I work out an agreement on the jurisdictional question in your presence—set up all the necessary mediation and arbitration machinery to do the job."

DELAY STRIKE OF OIL WORKERS IN CALIFORNIA

(BULLETIN)

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 19.—(INS)—The strike of 17,000 California oil workers, scheduled for 10 a. m. today, was postponed shortly after 7 a. m., today on orders from O. A. Knight, president of the union.

Knight said he had taken the action at the request of Commissioner Frank Wenig of the U. S. conciliation service. Knight said Wenig desired to meet with representatives of the union and the seven major oil companies involved in the strike in "a final attempt to settle the wage dispute."

It was the third postponement.

New Pronouncement Coming On India

LONDON, Feb. 19.—(INS)—A new and important pronouncement on India, possibly announcing a time limit for British withdrawal from the country was forecast today.

Informed quarters said Prime Minister Clement R. Attlee probably will go before the House of Commons tomorrow or Friday to outline Britain's future policy.

Senate Begins Debate On Truman Budget Cut

By ARTHUR F. HERMANN
(U. S. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—The Senate planned to begin debate today on the proposed multi-billion dollar budget cut as Republicans and Democrats alike expressed a desire to avoid any reductions which may impair the efficiency of the armed forces.

Senate approval of a four billion, 500 million dollar cut was all but a foregone conclusion in the wake of Republican majority conference action in voting for this figure in preference to the six billion dollar slash approved last week by the congressional budget committee.

Debate to Continue
Senate debate on the proposed cut from President Truman's budget request for 37 billion 500 million was expected to continue for the balance of this week, at least.

The House, meanwhile, went ahead with its plan to consider and dispose of the six billion dollar reduction proposal tomorrow. In advance of the House floor debate. (Continued on Page Two)

MANY OF INJURED IN SERIOUS SHAPE

(BULLETIN)

GALLITZIN, Pa., Feb. 19.—(INS)—Coroner Daniel Replogle today said 22 persons were killed all of them identified, in the wreck of the Pennsylvania Railroad's crack passenger train yesterday 10 miles west of Altoona.

Replogle said 25 dead had been listed originally, but some of the bodies had been counted twice. He said he made a survey of all undertaking establishments to ascertain the exact number of victims.

By JACK WARD
(U. S. S. Staff Correspondent)

GALLITZIN, Pa., Feb. 19.—A three-pronged investigation was underway today to determine the cause of the wreck of the Pennsylvania Railroad's Red Arrow passenger train which plunged down a mountain-side 10 miles west of Altoona.

Railroad officials reported at least 25 persons killed and 122 injured, many of them seriously. At least 70 remained hospitalized in Altoona's two hospitals.

May Be Other Victims
Coroner Daniel Replogle of Cambria county said he believed other victims of the ill-fated train were still buried in the wreckage, adding that the search would continue today.

Railroad officials reported 238 passengers and 17 crew members were aboard the Red Arrow when it plunged down the ravine. Of the 141 injured, 69 remained in Altoona General Hospital and 20 in Mercy Hospital at Altoona.

More than 40 of the injured were either navy or military personnel. Thirty of them were from the Bainbridge, Md., naval base.

Conducting the investigation at the scene were representatives of the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Pennsylvania Public Utilities Commission and the Pennsylvania Railroad. The inquiry began while rescue workers were still digging through the debris for additional victims.

Tran service between Pittsburgh and Altoona was restored shortly (Continued on Page Two)

TO GET PRIORITY

LONDON, Feb. 19.—(INS)—The home office announced today that it would grant priority to the British citizenship application of Prince Philip of Greece, who has been linked romantically with Princess Elizabeth of England.

The home office said that Philip, a lieutenant in the royal navy, would receive the same special attention given all men in his majesty's service.

Proposes Change In Starting Time Of State Assembly

HARRISBURG, Feb. 19.—(INS)—The General Assembly's regular law-making session would begin in September of odd years under a bill today before the senate committee on constitutional changes.

The governor would retain his authority to summon both houses into session at any time.

The measure was designed to give new governors time to size up the commonwealth's needs and draft a program.

LICENSE PET SHOPS?

HARRISBURG, Feb. 19.—(INS)—Licensing of pet shops was proposed today in a bill before the house.

John Fraser Talks On 'You' At Dinner Of Executives Club

Scotch Raconteur Delights Executives' Group With Handwriting Analyses

In one of the Executive club's most entertaining programs of the season at the club's dinner meeting in the ballroom of The Castleton Tuesday evening, John Fraser, world-renowned graphologist and raconteur, asked the audience to throw the scepticism overboard and speaking in a delightful Scotch burr, scored one "touche" after another with his estimations of human nature gained during many years' study of people, their physiognomies, and handwriting.

"You, and Especially You" was the subject of his address. Mr. Fraser was introduced by H. C. Haddell as a graphologist, physiognomist and a good Scotchman who "can tell a good story".

Starting from the premise that we all differ one from another in face, figure, and mentality, that each one of us is an individual, the speaker first talked on how handwriting reveals an individual's characteristics. Taking the letter T as an example, he told what such a little thing as the way a person crosses a T reveals to him. His analyses with accompanying illustrations caused considerable hilarity, as did his description of what he classified as the five types of men, the alimentive, the thoracic, the muscular, the osseous, and the mental.

Turning from the gentlemen to the ladies he mentioned to the continued delight of the audience, the eight different types of eyes and their significance. He ventured further into the subject of physiognomy, then a bit into anthropological signs of character before demonstrating his powers of analysis on obliging guinea pigs chosen from the audience.

After analyzing several faces and several samples of handwriting, Mr. Fraser answered questions.

J. Glenn Berry presided and introduced two new members, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shifflet. Named as a nominating committee to report at the April meeting were Fred C. Duff, Harvey B. Bush and H. C. Haddell.

For the March 6 meeting of the club, John V. Duell, who addressed the club on a previous occasion, will again be the speaker.

Home Owners Meet Thursday Night

Grape and wine production in the United States is estimated to be a half-billion dollar industry.

DECLARES FREIGHT CAR SHORTAGE ACUTE

March 31, said he is hopeful that a solution can be worked out at the coming conference. Meantime, he is conducting almost daily hearings reflecting the effect of the shortage throughout the country.

Government officials and railroad men alike agree that there must be a tremendous boost in freight car production if industry is to be maintained on an even keel.

Col. J. M. Johnson, director of the office of defense transportation, told the Red subcommittee: "The lack of railroad cars is more acute than it has been in the last six or seven years. Unless, and at once, heroic measures are taken to compel new cars on our railroad tracks, this nation will be further slowed down in its commercial and economic activities."

"If there is another big wheat crop this year it will be more troublesome and more unsatisfactory than the movement of the present crop."

however, the Republican House membership will meet in caucus today to become "acquainted" with the fiscal intricacies of the slash.

The Senate Republicans voted 22 to 19 for the smaller budget reduction after listening to lengthy appeals from Republican Senators Vandenberg of Michigan, Taft of Ohio and White of Maine in favor of the four and a half billion dollar slash.

Sen. Millikin (R) Colo., who proposed the figure, said that a majority of Senate Republicans apparently felt that "if we cut too deeply we might commit some blunders that could not be repaired."

He was referring specifically to the six billion dollar proposal which entailed cuts of one billion dollars in the army, 750 millions in the navy, and 500 millions in war department civil functions and foreign relief.

THREE PRONGED PROBE IS BEGUN IN TRAIN WRECK

before 9 p. m. last night when maintenance crews replaced nearly 500 feet of railroad track that had bent like pretzels.

Remove Mail Clerks' Bodies
Nearly 16 hours after the tragedy occurred, rescue workers with acetylene torches cut through a steel mail car and removed the torn bodies of five railway postal clerks. Three of them were found under several tons of mail.

Witnesses said the first engine jumped the rails and plunged down a ravine 150 feet below the sharp breaking Bonnington curve, half way between Gallitzin and the famed Horseshoe Bend. The second locomotive followed and landed about 50 feet down the rock-encrusted hillside.

Immediately one of the sleepers bounced side over side to the bottom and the second rolled down the hill in an upright position. A combination mail-passenger car shot out from the track and crashed on top of one of the sleepers. Others turned over on their side along the right-of-way and two hung partly over the embankment with their trucks still near the tracks.

Survivors of the wreck, said to be the worst in Pennsylvania's railroad history, told stories of calm heroism, suffering and death. Others told stories of nerve wracking screams from the injured that echoed through the mountain fastness.

HOUSE REJECTS O.P.A. REQUEST FOR MORE FUNDS

Truman's request for deficiency funds to operate federal agencies until June 30.

McCullough told a news conference that through Feb. 15 OPA had obtained more than 100 million dollars of the 102 millions appropriated for the 1947 fiscal year ending June 30.

Small Sum Remains
He explained that if nine millions is deducted from the balance only about eight million 500 thousand will be left.

The price official said that payments of accumulated annual leave would eat up all except about one million dollars of that figure, leaving the agency only enough to carry on through June 30.

Concessions would have to approve an appropriation for the agency's liquidation.

Sugar controls are scheduled to end March 31, but may be continued after that date under the second war powers act.

Sen. Robertson (R) Wyo. has introduced a bill in the senate to transfer the sugar rationing function to the agriculture department.

This proposal will be studied by the Senate Banking Committee at hearings slated to begin next Tuesday.

The fate of rent controls, which had been expected to be extended in considerably modified form, expires the OPA's June 30th expiration date was indicated by Sen. Buck (R) Del., Senate Banking Subcommittee chairman.

AWAIT CONGRESS ACTION ON LEND LEASE TO RUSSIA

Lesser amounts of construction machinery and other non-military items are included.

Ready For Shipment
Most of these orders are ready for shipment; others are nearly ready. The State department is standing back for congressional reaction.

Lend-Lease Administrator Chester Lane must await an okay from the legislative branch.

Lane and his associates stand on the report last week to the Senate Appropriations committee that the State department regards the Russian orders as "institutional agreements" which must be fulfilled.

Republican majority opinion on the deal was problematical. Chairman Arthur H. Vandenberg (Mich.) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee, pointedly chided the Moscow government in a recent speech for having ignored four suggestions that wartime lend-lease matters be adjusted. Vandenberg also wanted to know where 125 U. S. Liberty ships were that Russia got under lend-lease.

The raccoon reported in Tuesday evening's Pa New column as seen by Mrs. Robert Chappell, Franklin, belongs to William Price of this city, whose picture with the friendly animal was carried in The News a number of weeks ago. Mr. Price is anxious to get his pet back home again. It strayed away several days ago.

Displayed in one of the windows of City Building, Pa New has noticed a tender vine growing in a small flower pot, supported by a lead pencil, carrying a sugar ad.

City Hall offices will be closed all day, Saturday, February 22, because it is George Washington's birthday.

Someone tore down all no parking signs in Long avenue between Pennsylvania avenue and Moravia street, and what ones were not torn down were twisted, according to Policeman George Houston's report today.

An unusually good assembly program in observance of Brotherhood Week will be presented in the George Washington Junior high school auditorium at 9 o'clock tomorrow morning. It is open to the public. Lillenthal Case Splits Republicans

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—One of the significant phases of the fight over confirmation of David Lillenthal is the tenses it has churched up within the Republican party. The split between the liberals in the party and the conservative-reactionary leadership has been deepened.

Certain episodes have infuriated the liberals—above all, the spectacle of their party seeming to follow the dictation of all vindictive southern Democrats who is taking out his personal spleen on a loyal public servant. Documenting this strange political alliance was the disclosure by the Scripps-Howard newspapers that Senator Wallace White of Maine, majority leader in the Senate, had submitted his statement attacking Lillenthal to aged Senator Kenneth McKellar for approval before it was made.

Senator Wayne Morse of Oregon, most articulate of the Republican liberals, confronted White in the cloakroom. Morse was conscious that he did far more campaigning for his party last October than White has ever done in his long career in unflinching Republican Maine. The senator from Oregon let loose a blast against the placid White.

Tobey Back Lillenthal
"You mean," he said, "the designated lead of some of the Republicans in the Senate. But you are not the leader of them all, and I want you to know it here and now."

How many Republicans will finally vote for confirmation of Lillenthal as chairman of the Atomic Energy commission is uncertain. Senator Charles Tobey of New Hampshire led off with a statement for Lillenthal that, in its forthrightness, was in striking contrast to the negativism of the remarks which White submitted to McKellar for the latter's approval. Other Republican liberals are expected to follow Tobey in support of Lillenthal.

The parallel with the fierce controversy that developed over the confirmation of Louis D. Brandeis to be a justice of the Supreme Court has been drawn. It is an apt parallel.

Brandeis Called Socialist
Brandeis was nominated for a place on the court by Woodrow Wilson in 1916. Immediately there was a pained outcry from the smug, respectable, reactionary. Soon this grew into an organized campaign to prevent Brandeis's confirmation.

They called Brandeis a Socialist and a Communist. While the word "un-American" had not come into the vogue it now enjoys, they made that kind of charge against the man who had dared to speak his mind about the meaning of the concentration camp in this country.

Former President William Howard Taft was one of those who fulminated in private against the Brandeis appointment. In public, he joined with other eminently respectable jurists to say that Brandeis was "not a fit person" to be a member of the highest court of the land. Significantly, William Howard's son, Senator Robert A. Taft, seems likely to make a similar decision in the Lillenthal case.

Behind much of the attack on Brandeis was the poison of racism. This same poison colors not a little of the prejudice against Lillenthal. It is whispered in the Senate cloakroom and proclaimed when lobbyists and special leaders meet.

Brandeis, finally confirmed, became one of America's great judges. His viewpoint, his dissent after dissent and in decision after decision, was crystal clear. I was the point of view of a man cherishing profoundly the conviction of the dignity of the individual; cherishing the rights of the individual against the cowardly and craven mass; upholding the rights that have slowly been won as man evolved from the brute.

There Is More At Stake
Important as was the controversy that centered around Brandeis, there is more at stake, it seems to me, in the issue over Lillenthal. It must never be forgotten that President Truman offered the position to four other men before it was offered to Lillenthal. For personal and private reasons, they refused it. Lillenthal in most ways would have been better off to stay where he was, but he accepted the assignment.

If he is turned down by the Senate, it will be impossible to find a civilian of stature to accept the appointment. By default, atomic energy will revert to military control, contrary to the expressed will of Congress and the people. This is the ominous threat. That is the real meaning this issue has for America and the world.

Senator Morse made a forceful, far-ranging speech in the Senate last week. He suggested that perhaps Hitler had won the war, after all. And he warned his own party that, for all their confidence, they could lose the election in 1948 if they followed the fatal path of the 1920's in narrow reaction.

One Man's Opinion

By WALTER KIERNAN

(Distributed By International News Service)
News that only one in 10 college men knows what he wants to be in later life should not be disquieting. . . It will be recalled that Mr. Truman just wanted to be obiding.

Students with a definite goal lean to advertising. . . They seem to think there is a frontier beyond Chiquita Banana.

Goal or on goal, our campuses are packed today as never before. . . A few Junes from now there won't be a sheep left in the country with a whole skin.

But it's hard to believe that there are nine fellows or girls on each campus who don't know what they want to do later.

They sound like the Republican tax committee.

Anyway it's good news that Admiral Byrd dropped flags of the United Nations on the South pole. . . But I hear that the Penguins immediately named a security council and started fighting with each other.

LOOKING AT LIFE

By ERICH BRANDEIS

It always strikes me funny when I read about so-called psychologists issuing those high-sounding statements telling people all about solving their marriage and home problems.

Some time ago there was a fellow on the radio who gave very authoritative advice on happy home life. Then his wife sued him for divorce on the ground of extreme cruelty. He was fired from his radio job.

Then there was the head of a Parent-Teacher Association out in California to whom hundreds of mothers came for advice about their children. A nosy newspaper reporter found out one day that she had never been married and his paper printed the story. She was not re-elected.

All of which brings me to the advice Mrs. Theodora Armstrong, of Long Island, recently gave to girls who want to get married.

I don't know anything about Mrs. Armstrong's private life, but I certainly don't agree with her.

The movies and advertisements, she thinks, lead girls to feel that their choice in a mate should be determined by the kind of tobacco he uses, the kind of car he drives, the clothes he wears.

"Strength of character and community of interests are the real fundamentals," she says, "and too often a girl will find this out too late when the original 'pimp appeal' has disappeared and she finds that she and her husband have nothing to talk about."

The article from which I quote states that Mrs. Armstrong is interested in psychology and social work, while her husband is interested in science and engineering.

"But their interest in each other is such that he has learned from her about psychology, and she has learned from him about irrigation in Egypt."

From Me To You

By MESEALL

We are interested in the Lawrence County Chapter of the Home and Property Owners League. . . for this group is a part of a nation-wide organization. . . and it's an organization that is non-political. . . That is important because all citizens who own property can join hands to make a united appeal to our governmental agencies. . . an appeal or appeals that will protect the investments the property owner has and will make. . . also to fight red ideas that are being thrown at our government in Washington.

Here in Lawrence County the membership in this group is growing. . . every person who owns property is eligible to join. . . in Pittsburgh the membership runs into the thousands. . . with a large membership. . . over the entire nation those in charge at Washington will stop to listen.

In order to entertain the local membership. . . a very interesting series of programs have been arranged by the board of directors. . . the old fashioned debate idea. Six men. . . property owners. . . three on each side. . . six minute speeches with a summary speech at the end will make up the programs. It so happens that the topic for discussion this month will be. . . "How about the location for the New City Building?"

The meeting will be held in the Court House. . . Thursday evening. . . starting promptly at eight o'clock. . . all members and those who wish to know more about the Home and Property Owners group are urged to make this a date.

Let me assure you. . . to the best of my knowledge. . . no individual. . . or group will be embarrassed by this program or any program that will come in the future. Stimulate thought. . . thoughts that are for the purpose of bettering the welfare of this community is the main objective of the programs. So forget what your party affiliations are. . . just remember that you are a property owner, an investor in this community and make it a date for Thursday evening at 8 o'clock.

Great Game Of Politics

By FRANK R. KENT
(Copyright 1947, By The Baltimore Sun)

Basis Of Attack On Mr. Lillenthal

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19. In a few days now, under an intensely ugly and bitter fight which has aroused feeling in all parts of the country, the United States Senate will decide whether to confirm or reject the President's appointment of Mr. David E. Lillenthal, former head of the TVA, to become chairman of the extremely vital Atomic Energy Commission.

THIS is a fight which never should have taken place. It never would have taken place save for the personal animosity toward Mr. Lillenthal of Senator Kenneth McKellar, of Tennessee, one of the least admirable or esteemed members of the Senate. For years Senator McKellar has waged unceasing warfare upon Mr. Lillenthal. The original cause of his resentment was the refusal of Mr. Lillenthal to accord him patronage rights in TVA appointments, which was certainly to Mr. Lillenthal's credit. Since then Senator McKellar has missed no chance to strike at Mr. Lillenthal.

NOTWITHSTANDING, Mr. Lillenthal has established an outstanding reputation as an able and efficient administrator. His character and courage as well as his competency are also generally recognized. In addition to these attributes, he is particularly qualified for this position by his knowledge of the subject reflected in the Acheson-Lillenthal report, concurred in by the Secretary of War Patterson, Dr. Vannevar Bush, Mr. Baruch and many others, he seems unquestionably the best qualified and available man for the job. The degrading efforts of Senator McKellar to smear him, by themselves, would not have affected his overwhelming confirmation.

BUT, unhappily, last week Senator McKellar found unexpected support. First there was a charge that the TVA under Mr. Lillenthal had been infested with Communists and that he had done little about it. This charge was exploded long ago by the report of Representative Starnes of Alabama who, as chairman of a subcommittee operating under the eye of the vigilant Mr. Dies, made an investigation and found it false. No one, of course—not even Senator McKellar, whose hatred of Mr. Lillenthal makes him willing to do pretty nearly anything—has charged that Mr. Lillenthal himself is sympathetic with communism, and no one could read his recent statement and entertain any doubt as to the undiluted quality of his Americanism. Actually, the only allegations at this time against Mr. Lillenthal, susceptible of proof, are that he was a devout follower of the late Mr. Roosevelt; that he was a strong New Dealer; that he is, in fact, a "true liberal." For these reasons, apparently, the conservative Republicans and some conservative Democratic Senators have swung against him and his confirmation is in doubt.

WELL! Certainly, the writer of this column is not one to regard devotion to the late Mr. Roosevelt, the New Deal and the "true liberalism" as desirable assets for public men in high posts—quite the reverse. Certainly, it is not the rule for men who can be thus classed to be noted for either unusual character or unusual capacity—rare, indeed, when they are adequately endowed with both. But there are such men, and their overwhelming and convincing testimony is that Mr. Lillenthal is one of them. When to this is added his special experience and attainments in the field of atomic energy, opposition of the conservatives on the ground that he was a Roosevelt man and a New Dealer seems indefensible.

IF President Truman, for personal or political reasons, had passed over a better or as good a man as Mr. Lillenthal for this place there would be sound ground for opposition. But that is not the case and his rejection would render inevitable the nomination of an inferior man. Obviously, Mr. Lillenthal's present Senate ordeal would make the top man still more reluctant to serve. Under the circumstances, defeating Mr. Lillenthal would put the conservatives—particularly the Republican conservatives, because the blame would be on them—in a very bad position. It will make them seem so narrow, partisan and prejudiced that they pushed aside the best available man in the nation for this supremely important post.

THAT is exactly what the late Mr. Roosevelt did in the recent war when, despite the fact that Mr. Herbert Hoover was concededly the most experienced and equipped man in the world to deal with the problem of food, he refused all suggestions to make him food administrator, turning the job over to incompetents who botched it dreadfully. Clearly he sacrificed the national interests to his personal spleen. It was a vindictive, petty and discreditable thing to have done. If now for no better reason than that he was a Roosevelt New Dealer, the Republicans deprive the nation of Mr. Lillenthal's services, the same indictment can be made against them—and should be.

IT WILL not lie in their mouths to criticize Roosevelt if they equal him in pettiness and prejudice. In addition, theirs is a foolish complaint. Conceding that Mr. Lillenthal is a "liberal" look at the other members of the commission. There is Mr. Lewis Strauss, the baner; Mr. Waymack, the editor; Dr. Baehar, the physicist. They constitute a majority, and "true liberals" is not the way to describe them. If the Republicans cut Mr. Lillenthal down without better reasons than now exist, it will be an act of great stupidity which they will regret the next campaign, where they have to defend it.

BALLAD OF LIFE

We know the way the game is played.
The winner gets the cups and cheers.
The loser slowly disappears.
Remembering mistakes he made.
The debts we run must all be paid.
The sky is gray but soon it clears.
For none a level path is laid.
Life is a blend of smiles and tears.

From birth to age, when all is weighed
And balanced is the book of years—
Debts and credits, hopes and fears,
In separate columns stand displayed.
No matter what man's craft or trade,
The day of reckoning appears.
None can this solemn fact evade.
Life is a blend of smiles and tears.

Today the sun, tomorrow shade.
Now, laughter ringing in our ears;
And then, the time for sorrowing nears.
The will of God must be obeyed.
In spite of all the prayers we prayed,
And wondering if our prayers He hears.
Not long can grieving be delayed.
Life is a blend of smiles and tears.

L'Envoi

Lord, I would face them unafraid—
Applauding hands and failure's sneers.
And always trust in Thee for aid.
Life is a blend of smiles and tears.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

FANTASY SHOULDN'T BE CURBED

One thing which makes the child from two to five or six such an interesting personage is his creative imagination. All too soon, alas, we older persons may crush out this precious trait when we really ought to foster its development.

During the second and third year, your child properly begins to do or say some things which if done or said by an adult would land him in an asylum for the insane. He handles things you cannot see, talks about things not present to your senses, turns blocks or sticks or stones into as many other things or animals or persons as he chooses.

At Three or Four

Views Of The News

By J. C. OESTREICHER
(U. S. S. Foreign Editor)

The United States government's plan to obtain sole trusteeship over the former Japanese mandated islands in the Pacific was faced with opposition and delay in fulfillment.

Yet all indications pointed to eventual success, simply for these two reasons:
First, the justification of any and all American claims in the island areas is fairly well recognized.

Second, the United States is about the only country that can afford the very considerable expenses that will be involved in patrols and development.

The Japanese spent many millions of dollars on the Marshall, Marianas and Carolina Islands during the many years they were given over to her keeping by the mandates commission of the league of nations.

But the investments were for destructive purposes and not constructive ones, for they were transformed into the framework of Japan's aggressive system of naval and aerial armaments. For future peacetime purposes the extensive dredging carried out by the Japanese for the accommodation of big battleship and aircraft carriers may be of some value.

The balance of the work done by Tokyo, however, does not represent anything commensurate with American standards or industrial requirements.

CLEVELAND—Prof. H. D. Smyth, author of the famous report on atomic bomb production: "No amount of government financing or of organization and official correlation will automatically keep free and imaginative research going."

THESE POLISH ELECTIONS

It is doubtful if one American in a hundred believes that the voting in Poland's first "free" election, as reported by the Communist puppet government, remotely reflects the real sentiment of the great majority of the Polish people. Considering Poland's past history and the general character of her people, it is impossible to believe that any fair expression of the populace would give the Reds 390 out of 444 seats in parliament. With the Soviet puppets in full charge, not only of the election machinery but of the police power, the result long ago appeared inevitable. Just what the United States and Great Britain could do to prevent this obvious violation of the Tehran pledge given by Stalin is a matter of speculation. But one prediction seems fairly safe: There is still sufficient spirit in the Polish people to make the rule of a new puppet regime anything but an easy job.

Poland as a kingdom dates back to 965. Since the days of her early power and glory Poland has been "partitioned" four times. In spite of (Continued on Page Eight)

If you have to drive a long distance, you should try to have a relief driver along. Driving all the way by yourself, you may doze off at the wheel. And be particularly careful on good roads. They are more treacherous for the tired driver than a winding, rough road, for the latter keeps him alert.

One-Way Street

Recently an American admiral was asked to describe the exchange of information on naval matters with Russia during the war. Said the admiral: "One-way street."

The description applies all too aptly to almost any phase of Russian activity one can think of. A case in point, if any is needed, is that of the missing B-29s. Several American Superfortresses, at that time America's most secret aircraft, were forced down in Russian territory. The crews were interned and any American who ever caught sight of the planes again did so entirely by accident.

It is necessary to give the Russians credit for taking the cheapest possible way to get what they didn't have—working models of a highly effective long-range bomber. It becomes all the cheaper when it is remembered that it came at a time when Russia was receiving tremendous quantities of American lend-lease supplies and equipment—supposedly with some degree of appreciation.

The word reciprocity must have some peculiar meaning all its own when translated into Russian—if, indeed, it is part of the language.

All take and no give is a policy not exactly guaranteed to promote good will among men and nations. It is becoming increasingly apparent that Russia's desires in that direction are heavily outweighed by her desires in others.

A Worthwhile Survey

The first fruits of the House Labor committee's effort to ascertain what wage earners think about labor law reform are now at hand. Representative Gwynn, who has been making a "workbench survey" in Indianapolis and Nashville, has reported informally on the results of his inquiries.

Rank and file jobholders, according to Representative Gwynn, generally are in favor of "improving" the Wagner Act. They also incline to the belief that industry-wide collective bargaining should be prohibited. On the question of banning the closed shop, opinions of those interviewed were "very mixed."

These conclusions are interesting because they indicate that workers who would be directly affected by changes in existing labor laws and by new legislation to curb the power of the unions are generally agreed that Congress should take some action to correct an unsatisfactory situation. Consequently the lawmakers should be strengthened in their determination to go ahead with the job now.

It is not surprising that working men who belong to unions should feel that some changes are needed. After all, they are the worst sufferers from the kind of economic situation that prevailed during the greater part of last year, when strikes brought wage increases that compelled higher prices and at the same time prevented maximum production of the goods to beat inflation.

The House Labor committee has embarked on a worthwhile project. It should keep on with it until a good cross-section of rank and file opinion has been sustained.

The Future Of Coal

When the nation's soft coal mines were first taken over by the government, it was generally understood that the move was in the nature of a formality, and that the mines would soon be returned to their owners. However, this "temporary socialization" of one of the nation's most important natural resources seems to have acquired a semi-permanency. As a result, the public, no less than the mine owners, is entitled to know just what the government intends to do.

It is sometimes argued that governmental control is necessary to cope with the mine labor problem. But the principal miners' union has defied the government as brazenly as it has the private operators. As England is proving now, socialism is not the magical solution to a country's economic ills—it actually produces more problems than it can begin to solve.

Returning the mines to their owners should not be longer delayed. The American people have never sanctioned socialization of the industry. Every evidence points to the fact that the people are strongly opposed to the further extension of governmental powers—that was the outstanding lesson of last November's elections.

The mine labor problem can only be solved under equitable laws, which will abolish industry-wide bargaining, force the union to accept responsibilities commensurate with its powers, and restate the principle of arbitration between worker and employer. So long as government dominates the coal industry, the future of the industry, on which the nation is dependent, will remain in a state of confusion.

Penetrating Antarctic

The Byrd expedition to the Antarctic is penetrating deeper into the unknown region than did any of its predecessors. News that what appeared to be warm springs had been discovered is followed by word that a sea plane alighted in the region and the water was definitely warmer than found elsewhere. What appeared to be ore-bearing rocks were seen. Outcroppings of rock were also seen by crew members of a second Mariner plane which flew west of the lake region. The plane's magnetic compass, it was reported, behaved almost normally during flight over the outcroppings, which appeared in an area which has an altitude of nearly 6,000 feet.

World peace through international agreements and international police forces certainly looks rather difficult to accomplish when we think that we can't even merge our own Army and Navy without a fight.

One reason for the present wave of juvenile delinquency is that too many parents are seeking to train their children by remote control.

Students Speak On Brotherhood

Present Round-Table Discussion
Before Lions Club
At Noon Luncheon
Tuesday

LION RAMSEY IS ALSO HEARD

Tuesday noon's meeting of the New Castle Lions club was especially interesting, a two-way program being presented, which featured a Round Table discussion on the subject, "Youth Will Not Be Intolerant," and a talk by Earl N. Ramsey, International Counselor, on "Lionism."

Bob Brown presided and introduced the speakers who appeared before the club in the interests of American Brotherhood Week, which is being observed this week. They represented different racial groups and religions, and spoke for a more tolerant understanding between all peoples in this country.

Those taking part, all of whom came from George Washington Junior high school, were: Teresa Sparano, James Braham, Sam Rendel, Frances Harmon, William Boyd, and Mary Ann Fisher.

Children Are Tolerant
They brought out the fact that racial and religious intolerance is not characteristic with children, but that they are taught intolerance by grown-ups. That it is just as easy to teach tolerance as it is intolerance.

They also brought out the fact that children become intolerant as they grow older and hear intolerance expounded in the home, the school, or the church.

The conclusion reached was that although much of a person's character is moulded in the home, the school, the church, the press, and the radio are also dominant factors, and that they should all be teaching tolerance rather than intolerance.

Tells Of Lions' Progress

Lion Ramsey spoke on the founding and growth of Lionism, particularly for the benefit of the new members, the program being presented by the Education committee. He explained how the Lions club came to be formed by Melvin Jones, who was elected Secretary General at its first convention, and has continued to hold that position since 1915.

The first club was formed to give community service, no such club being in existence in Chicago, Mr. Jones' home city, at that time. From this beginning, in 1914, Lions International has grown to 5,700 clubs, with a membership of 285,000 men, all interested in service to the community, and devoted to an international program.

It was announced by Chairman S. Glenn McCracken, who presided in the absence of President Charles Lumley, that next Tuesday's luncheon would be a fathers and sons affair, with Rev. J. Calvin Rose, the speaker. An inter-club meeting for March 4, with the Kiwanis Club as host was also announced.

Washington School Brotherhood Program

Scheduled Thursday Morning In School Auditorium With Pupils In Cast

The play entitled "As One Star Differeth," will be presented by groups of pupils of the ninth grade, members of the chorus and dramatic club.

Brotherhood is the theme throughout the program and deals with tolerance, to have respect for all regardless of race, color, or creed. Approximately 40 to 50 pupils will participate in this presentation under the direction of Mrs. Carl Cramer.

Also keeping in tune with Brotherhood Week will be a round table discussion which heretofore has been presented to groups of service clubs.

The discussion is on the subject "Children Will Not Be Intolerant." Students will participate in this round table discussion.

Miss Nannie Mitchell is the principal of George Washington school. It is expected that a large group of people of the community will attend this program of brotherhood, exemplified with good will and understanding by all.

CABBAGE AND KINGS

Kings seem to be gradually going out of style. There does not seem to be a very great supply of kings nowadays.

Cabbage seems to be as popular as ever. Before vitamins were discovered some doctors said that cabbage provided no calories. If it supplies no nourishment, why eat it?? Grandma kept right on serving it on the dinner table.

Now we know that cabbage is rich in vitamins. It may provide some other unknown things too. There is usually some good reason for long continued popularity. Cabbage is an old timer. It is valuable as a food either cooked or raw.

It should not be cooked very long. Cole slaw should be eaten soon after it is prepared. Some vitamins are pretty delicate. They can't stand much.

International News Service Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Feb. 19.—(INS)—

Beauteous Joan Caulfield has just gone through the most hair-raising experience of her life, but she slept right through it.

Overwrought after a day working in a dramatic scene requiring hysteria, Joan unknowingly climbed out of bed at 1 a. m., wandered out on a balcony where a misstep would have brought a 20-foot fall and screamed her lines into a murky night.

She startled the life out of her neighbors and her mother, who put her back to bed without Joan realizing what had happened.

A very mystified girl told your reporter all about it. "I can't understand it," Joan said. "As far as I know, I've never walked in my sleep nor talked in my sleep in my life. It probably was caused by the fact I'm working in a very dramatic role and all my past experience has been in comedy or musicals."

To fill you in, Joan was discovered by the movies, Paramount to be exact, in the famous Broadway comedy, "Kiss And Tell." She costarred in five Paramount movies, costing $15,000,000 before Mike Curtiz borrowed her for "The Unsuspected," in which she predicts she'll become a great dramatic star.

Will Tighten Up Dog License Law

Harrisburg Reports Strict Enforcement Of Law To Be Carried Out During Year

HARRISBURG, Feb. 19.—Calling attention of Pennsylvania dog owners to the necessity for obtaining 1947 dog license tags—available at offices of county treasurers and justices of the peace since January 15—State Secretary of Agriculture Miles Horst declared rigid enforcement of the state dog law will be carried out again this year.

Several all-time state records were established in dog law enforcement last year, the secretary announced. Outstanding were:

1. Dog licenses sold totaled 608,607 compared with 606,763 in 1945, the previous record year, excluding Philadelphia and Pittsburgh which issue their own dog licenses.

2. Killing of 24,271 stray and unlicensed dogs running at large by local police officers represents a new high in efforts to dispose of the chief spreaders of rabies, and greater cooperation by municipalities in controlling the menace of vicious dogs.

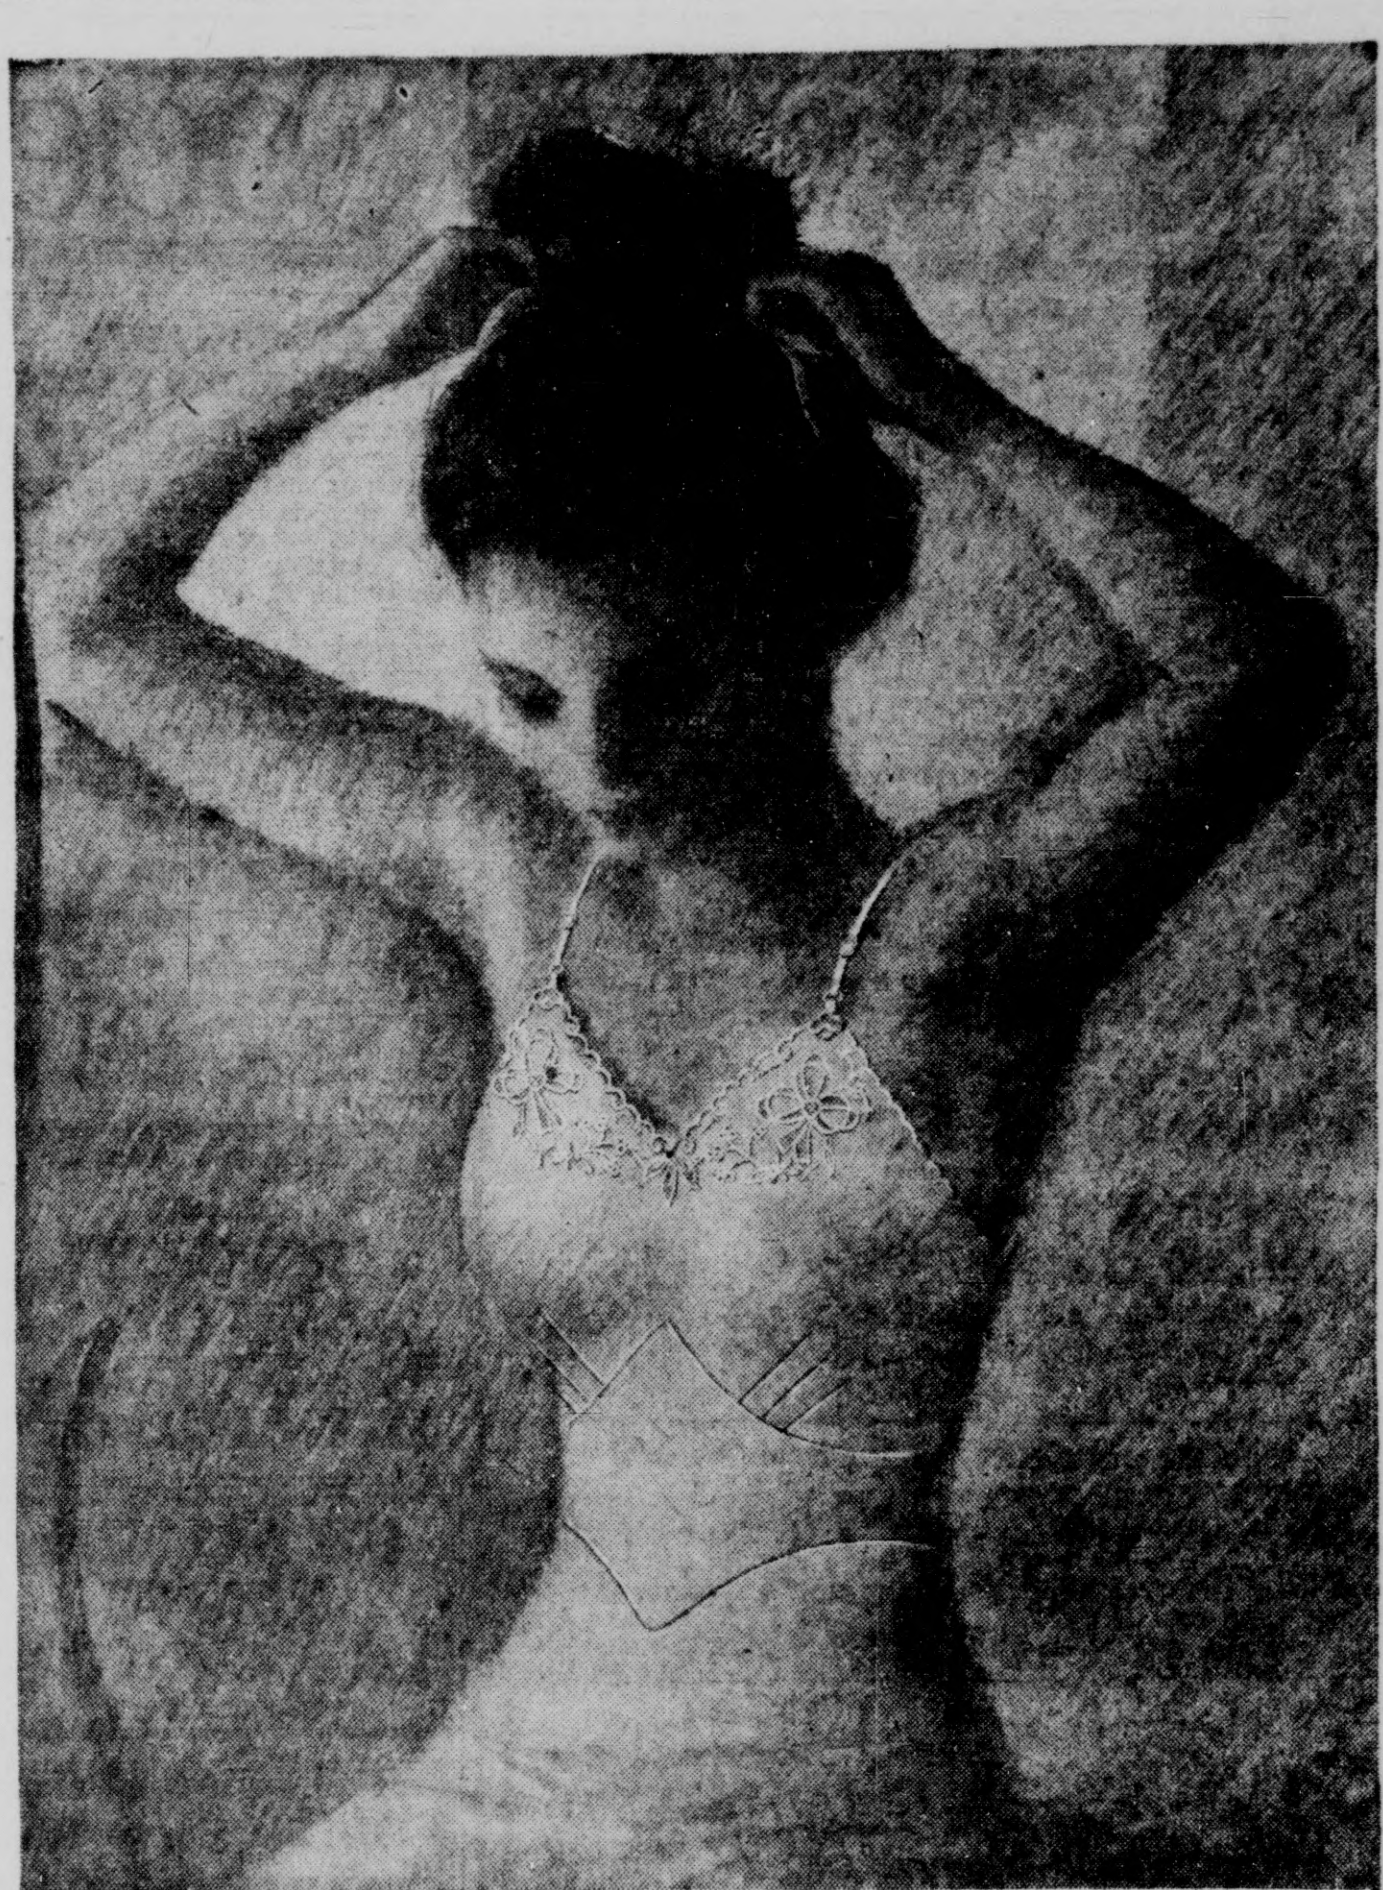

3. Disposal of 5,339 unlicensed stray dogs by department agents, an all-time record, due in part to a 180-day state quarantine in Luzerne county when six special agents aided in bringing a rabies epidemic under control.

Croton Boys To Play In City Tournament

Outstanding basketball playing of the boys of the Croton grade school, have earned them the privilege to play in the city recreation tournament that will be staged at Washington Junior High under the City Recreation Bureau on March 10, 12 and 13. The boys have been coached by their instructor, Miss Mildred Sargeant, health instructor in the school.

A creative piece of work is being accomplished in the art department under the capable supervision of Mrs. Morphyd Brown. The boys and girls from Mrs. Brown's and Miss Ruth Lewis' classes are busily engaged in painting Easter flowers on bowls that were secured through the efforts of Joseph Dietrich of the Shenango Pottery.

The bowls which have been thrown aside as discards, are being made into beautiful pieces of work, by the students. The desired design is hand painted on the bowl, then they are varnished to give them luster. It is the intention of the classes to plant Easter lilies in the bowls after which they will present them to their parents as Easter gifts.

Judge Braham Is Heard By Legion Of Honor Tuesday

Addresses Consistory Ex - Service Men At Annual Washington's Birthday Dinner

Judge W. Walter Braham was the guest speaker at the annual Washington's Birthday Dinner in The Cathedral Tuesday evening, giving his famous talk, "Lincoln, Our Greatest Politician." The event attracted 150 members of the Legion of Honor.

Officers of the Consistory, headed by Commander in Chief Ill. Welby O. Rugh, were special guests of the occasion, the event being held each year to honor the consistory officers as well as to commemorate the memory of the first president, who was also a member of the Masonic fraternity.

Judge Braham traced Lincoln's political career from the time he first ran for office until elected president and showed how he was able to sense the trend of the times and turn them to political advantage.

Past Commander C. C. Sweesy was general chairman of the event, and a splendid dinner was provided, these arrangements being in charge of Clyde D. Badger. Charles E. Allen served as toastmaster.

Donaldson pleaded innocent to participation in the crime and his trial was postponed indefinitely.

Bethlehem Steel Opposes Union For Foremen

Bargaining Conferences Are Resumed Between Officials And Union Representatives

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—(INS)—Bethlehem Steel Co. demanded on Tuesday independence of foremen from union "domination or interference."

The company's negotiating committee presented this demand and others to the United Steel Workers of America at the bargaining conferences which were resumed today for a new agreement to replace the one which expires April 30.

The company also proposed to limit the agreement to wages, hours and the conditions under which the men work, as contracted with provisions directed to external matters, such as social and economic changes.

A third demand was that the agreement should not contain any provision for compulsory union membership.

Would Destroy Authority

The company, in opposing union organization of foremen, asserted that this "would destroy the foremen's authority to deny to them their true function as members of management."

Other proposals presented by the company were:

The agreement shall be binding on the union's locals and local officers.

Additional provisions should be made to protect the company, during the agreement, against strikes, slow-downs or other forms of organized interference with production.

Vacations should be granted only to those employees who have worked regularly during the preceding year.

Holidays not worked should not be considered as days worked in determining whether an employee has worked five days in a week after which he must be paid overtime.

Among the items upon which import tariffs might be lowered are: Indelible tallow; Cuban corn; Cuban pineapples; grapes; dried and prepared peaches and pears; lactose; white clover seed; various silk and cotton manufacturers; plywood; handbags; paper; glass lenses; imitation pearls; flexible metal tubing; saccharin; thymol; eucalyptol; ammonium and aluminum derivatives; fish hooks, and clocks and clock movements.

Countries with whom reciprocal trade treaties are pending include: Australia, Belgium, Brazil, Canada, Chile, China, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, France, Luxembourg, The Netherlands, New Zealand, India, Lebanon, Norway, Union of South Africa, Soviet Russia and the United Kingdom.

Developing New Silicon Alloys

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 19.—(INS)—M. M. Striplin, Jr., told the American Institute of Chemical Engineers that TVA engineers at Wilson dam, Ala., have developed a method to produce aluminum-silicon alloys from white clay.

Striplin, a TVA engineer, said the clay-producing alloy is available in "tremendous quantities" in the Tennessee valley and was part of a TVA program to develop mineral resources abundant in the area.

May Involve Forse

In More Robberies

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 19.—(INS)—Police today checked clues which they thought possibly might involve James M. Forse, Jr., confessed slayer of a Pittsburgh grocer, in several holdups.

Forse, 23-year-old veteran, yesterday admitted to officers he had robbed a Pittsburgh pharmacy of $32 just 24 hours before he shot and fatally wounded Alfred Kemper, 69, January 23.

Last week he told police he had fatally wounded Kemper in a "thrill" holdup but claimed the shooting was accidental.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

pretend, for instance, that you are he and he is you, carrying on the drama for a day or two continuously. When he does so, join in with his play. Do not be impatient with him if he is annoyed when you forget to execute your part.

It is hard for adults living in the cold, hard, cruel world with its realities, to put ourselves in this young creator's place and be a child again. None of us, indeed, can do it perfectly even when we make the effort. But most parents rarely try. Some never do but, instead, grow impatient with the little tyke and scold him for his foolishness; so that when he spins his yarn of fancy and relates things as having happened which to parents may seem absurd, the little dramatist is accused of lying and is punished.

Sees No Reason

The child can see no reason for such treatment. He really heard with his own ears and saw with his own eyes what he related. He never could have been more truthful. It is those who are his accusers and punishers that must be the liars. When treated so, how hard it must be for him to discover what truth is!

If, when your child enters kindergarten or the first grade, he seems unable to discriminate between facts and fancies, be sympathetic. Don't suggest that he is lying. Just calmly help him to discover the difference. Lead him to label obviously make-believe accounts as "play stories," and true accounts as those that "really happened."

Avoid the words "Lie" and "Truth." Better keep them from the family vocabulary where there are little children. All this I discuss at length in my bulletin, "Now Come the Fairies," to be had for postage by writing me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

I have made a selected list of good books from which to read to the baby and young child. It may be had in a stamped envelope sent me at 235 East 45th street, New York, N. Y.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

repeated military defeats, however, the nation thrived and developed a high culture. It has given the world some great warriors, statesmen, musicians, writers and inventors. Its industries and agriculture were at a high point of development when the Nazi invasion came in 1939, with the parallel invasion of the Russians wreaking wholesale devastation and misery. The last "partition" was not agreed upon between Stalin and Hitler, followed by a "revision" of borders through agreement among Mr. Stalin, Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Churchill.

It is inconceivable that a nation which prospered and lived happily for so many years under individualistic capitalism should suddenly be transformed into a Communist people. It is likewise inconceivable that a nation which received from Russia such ruthless brutalities as were inflicted during the joint invasion with the Nazis could feel any real enthusiasm for Russian domination as that indicated by the "free" election reports. Neither is it believable that the mass of Poles could ever forget or forgive the deliberate failure of the Soviet armies to come to their rescue when the underground army of General Broz fought heroically for weeks against the Germans—with the loss of some two hundred fifty thousand brave patriots, representing practically extermination. Neither is it possible to reconcile a desire for Russian puppet control with the steadfast refusal of four hundred thousand displaced Poles—including one hundred twenty thousand Polish soldiers who fought with the Allies—to return to their native land.

The whole election set-up is unconscionable. The fact the United States can do is to refuse recognition of the newly "elected" government until the actual sentiment of the Polish people can be made known.

He faces an investigation by Gen. Douglas MacArthur's headquarters. The jewels—most of them diamonds—were declared to be the property of the U. S. Customs Service.

COLOR SCHEME

"Would you please tell me the colors I should avoid, if any? My hair is medium brown, my eyes are gray but my skin, alas, although light is somewhat rough and scarred from several years of Acne. I should like to make these imperfections less obvious, but how?"

Answer: First of all, concentrate on something substantial and becoming—one of those new "all-day" make-ups applied with cotton or a sponge which will tone down the imperfections in your skin and give you a more smooth complexion. A touch of rouge, a touch of mascara (if you need it) and a becoming shade of lipstick will emphasize your eyes and mouth and make your imperfect skin less obvious.

Next in importance is your selection of colors. And in this you must shun all vivid shades as disastrous to anything but flawless complexion. These include bright yellow or orange, violet, vivid blues and hard reds.

Your becoming colors should be: Black, black with white neck trim and soft shades, such as grayed blue, dark blue, orange-red, dark red, dark green, dark blue-green and gray.

After you have done these things to make your poor complexion less conspicuous, forget it and concentrate on your good points. If you dwell on your imperfections, you will develop an inferiority complex, which will make your life miserable. Very few people are one hundred per cent perfect. We all have our defects which we should minimize to the best of our ability and think no more about them.

Question: I want to give an afternoon bride party. Please suggest the simplest kind of written invitation.

Answer: Of course, telephone invitations are always permissible for informal functions. Or you might, if you prefer, send visiting card invitations with the date and "bridge at three" written in ink along the top of the card. "R.s.v.p." in lower left-hand corner and your address in the lower right-hand corner.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers inclosing stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

WHITE PRIMARY BILL IS PASSED

Georgia Senate Approves Measure Already Given Favorable Vote In House

ATLANTA, Ga., Feb. 19.—(INS)—Georgia's notably debated white primary bill was passed by the senate Tuesday with the same overwhelming majority it received in the house.

The senate voted 35 to 15 in favor of the measure, the mainspring of the late Gov. Eugene Talmadge's platform and objective No. 1 in the legislative program of his son, Herman Talmadge, who now occupies the disputed executive office.

Condemned by a minority of legislators as destroying all safeguards for Georgia elections, the bill divorces election rules from the state's statute books. The primaries, according to the bill, will be governed entirely by the Democratic party.

Designed, in effect, to bar the Negro from the polls, the bill was approved only after nearly three weeks of turbulent debate.

It was approved by the house, 133 to 62 but the delay was assailed by young Talmadge as the work of "obstructionists."

Sen. Everett Millican, of Fulton (Atlanta) county, assailed the measure in a final outburst of opposition. The man who led the fight against its passage from the outset declared:

"This is the worst piece of legislation ever drawn in Georgia." Ex-speaker of the house, Roy V. Harris, of Augusta, who sponsored the bill and helped write it, asserted:

"It smashes with the wishes of three-fourths of the people of Georgia. It is the only bill that could have been passed because the Negroes were to have a white primary is to repeal all laws regulating primary elections with the exception of criminal statutes against fraud."

Before going back to Talmadge, who was expected to sign the bill before dusk, the white primary measure first was to move back into the house for final approval. Observers predicted it would be dispatched to Talmadge immediately and become law.

Judge Dockweiler Is Disqualified In Laraine Day Case

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 19.—(INS)—

Superior Judge George A. Dockweiler on Tuesday was disqualified from hearing further proceedings in connection with Actress Laraine Days marriage and divorce troubles.

Judge Edward T. Bishop, also of the superior court, to whom Miss Day's affidavit of prejudice had been referred, ruled that Judge Dockweiler had shown bias and that it was "probable" that Miss Day could not obtain a "fair and impartial trial" before him.

It was Judge Dockweiler who had granted the actress a divorce from airport manager J. Ray Hendricks.

Murray Assails Pending Bills On Labor Issues

WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—(INS)—CIO President Philip Murray today assailed pending labor bills as the "forerunners of a serious depression involving all Americans."

Murray told the Senate Labor committee that the nation's major ills cannot be solved by a "mad campaign to chastise American working men and women." He added:

"We cannot move far down the road of punitive legislation against labor inspired by monopoly industry and invoked by the legislative arm of government without disastrous consequences."

"These measures are forerunners of a serious depression involving all Americans."

The CIO chief said the No. 1 problem before the country is the growth of monopoly in industry to the point where "small groups of men in a financial oligarchy" are engaged in "a gigantic gouge of the American people."

Full Operas Are To Be Recorded

NEW YORK, Feb. 19.—(INS)—It was a big day today for the "long-hairs" in musical circles.

Columbia Recording Corporation announced that it would record two full operas a year under a five-year contract with the Metropolitan Opera company.

Shortly after the Columbia announcement, R. C. A. Victor announced that it would start full-length operas sung by Metropolitan opera stars under exclusive contract to them for recordings. The Victor company added that operas recorded in the studio were "more satisfactory" than those recorded while the actual opera was being performed.

From the opening statements of the two companies it appears that opera is going to crowd Bing Crosby, Frank Sinatra and "Open the Door Richard" from the juke boxes.

Student Nurses Feted By Group

Graduating Class New Castle Hospital Guests Of Honor At Tuesday Dinner-Program

Fourteen student nurses of the graduating class of the New Castle Hospital School of Nursing were guests of honor Tuesday evening at a dinner-party program held in the recreation room of the nurses home. Students of the Senior B nursing class were hosts.

The room was gayly decorated in red, white, and silver, class colors. Centering the room was a wishing well. A silver wishbone holding red placecards, marked places. Red souvenir programs were distributed.

Rev. Fr. Albert M. Inteso, assistant pastor of St. Vitus church, gave the invocation. The delicious steak dinner was served, with appropriate musical selections being enjoyed throughout the dinner. Miss Martha Thomas, chairman, was master of ceremonies, introduced: Vocal selection by Miss Patricia Chip, accompanied by Mrs. Frances Colao, pianist. The class song to the tune of "Wishing," written by Alfreda Stutler, was Miss Chip's encore, and later the entire class sang the song.

A skit was presented entitled "Father and Child Doing Well," with Jane Russell, Patricia O'Leary, Ann Buckley and Beryl Brown participating.

Father Inteso spoke at this time, extending congratulations. He expressed the hope that the knowledge acquired by the graduates during their period of training, would in the future prove valuable, and be put to use, so that their success would reflect upon the high integrity of the school of nursing.

Accorded selections were offered by Norene Snyderwine, and the class prophecy was read by Eleanor Jordan.

Dr. Charles Whalen, extended best wishes in behalf of the New Castle hospital staff and the New Castle Hospital Nursing Council, and for success in future years.

Sister M. Johns, superintendent of the New Castle hospital, in her message reminded the nurses to uphold the high reputation of the school. On behalf of the Sisters of St. Francis, she extended wishes.

Sister M. Dolores, director of nurses urged the students to strive for high ideals, and happiness in Christian womanhood.

Rev. Fr. Edward Boley, chaplain of the New Castle hospital, told the girls they are instruments of divine charity, and to continue their excellent work. He closed with benediction.

Speaking for the class and in returning thanks was Lillian Ambrozewicz. Gifts were then presented to the class by Beryl Brown and Ann Buckley.

Chairmen were Martha Thomas and Jennie DeCarbo, committees: Louise Fernandez, Mary Natale, Patricia Chip, Alfreda Stutler, Beryl Brown, Ann Buckley, Martha Johns, Frances Siegel, Edith Mer-shimer and Patricia O'Leary.

IF STOMACH BALKS DUE TO GAS AND BLOAT

Help Get Food Digested to Relieve Yourself of This Nervous Distress

Do you feel all puffed-up and miserable after every meal, taste sour, bitter food? If so, here is how you may get blessed relief in helping your stomach do the job—it should be doing—in the digestion of its food.

Everytime food enters the stomach a vital gastric juice must flow normally to break-up certain food particles; else the food may ferment. Sour food, acid indigestion and gas frequently cause a morbid, touchy, fretful, peevish, nervous condition, loss of appetite, underweight, restless sleep, weakness.

To get real relief you must increase the flow of this vital gastric juice. Medical authorities, in independent laboratory tests on human stomachs, have by positive proof shown that SSS Tonic is amazingly effective in increasing this flow when it is too little or scanty due to a non-organic stomach disturbance. This is due to the SSS Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, SSS Tonic helps build-up non-organic, weak, watery blood in nutritional anemia—so with a good flow of this gastric digestive juice plus rich red-blood you should eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better.

Avoid punishing yourself with over-doses of soda and other alkalis to counteract gas and bloating when what you so dearly need is SSS Tonic to help you digest food for body strength and "repair." Don't wait! Join the host of happy people SSS Tonic has helped. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle of SSS Tonic from your drug store today. SSS Tonic helps Build Sturdy Health.

New Castle High Loses To Sharon In Exciting Battle 33-31

'Whiz Kids' Play Hard But Tigers Squeeze Out Win

New Castle Leads First Half, Tigers Big Third Period Spurt Does Trick

REA AND SPEARS SCORING STARS

Sharon High Tigers are still leading Section Three by a whisker, and that's just what the margin was here last night—a whisker, as the Tigers ran into an aroused New Castle High "Whiz Kids" quintet, that battled right down to the final second, and then saw the league leaders walk off with a 33 to 31 victory.

It wasn't any walkaway for the Tigers who had previously defeated New Castle 39 to 24, it was a tough old ball game from the first whistle until the final gun sounded. A capacity crowd saw the contest, over 1,200 fans. Many hundreds were turned away.

Locals Lead At Half
Coach Bill Douglas had the New Castle boys "up" for this game, they showed it, and so was Sharon "up" they had to be. It was a tight defensive game the first half—the first period ending all even at 4-4, and New Castle ahead at the half 12 to 10, as the two teams resorted to defense rather than offense.

So fight was the first half in fact that only 12 field goals were recorded. New Castle looked the better of the two in the first-half, and Sharon's experience stood out in the third and fourth periods.

Tigers Grab Lead
Sharon grabbed the lead when Garay made a field goal after Bartosh had tied up the count at 12-12 as the third stanza began. New Castle tried hard, but trailed at the end of the period 23 to 17. Coach Douglas used two subs in the third period—Al Tate and Wayne Gray for Spears and Watters, but both of the starters returned as the final session got under way.

Sharon enjoyed its biggest lead in the start of the fourth period—25 to 17. With four minutes left of the game Sharon led 29 to 23. Garay "lees" 29 to 23.

With a minute of play remaining New Castle tied up the game at 31-31 as Don Watters made a field goal with the time running out. Sharon grabbed the ball and maced down the floor Steve Garay letting one fly and it rang the hoons making it 33 to 31, with a half-minute left to play. Pandemonium was running loose in the final seconds, and New Castle tried desperately to get the ball, but Sharon held to it and that was that.

The loss was the seventh in section play against three wins for New Castle and keeps them in fifth place. New Castle plays Farrell Friday night at Farrell and hope to erase the one-point loss suffered here at the hands of the Steelers.

Rea-Spears High Scorers
"Chuck" Rea played the best game of his career last night, getting 12 points to be high man in the game, while Don Spears was runnerup in the scoring for New Castle with nine points. Don Watters, playing with a badly injured nose had six points and responded with a fine defensive game, as did all of the "Whiz Kids." Sharon covered Don Black like a tent, and the league leading scorer was held to four points. He played a brilliant game however.

Leading the Sharon attack was big Mike Zvarich with 11 points followed by Steve Garay with nine. Sharon missed big Babe Weber in the game, but his sub Wally Jones had seven points.

Tigers Get Scare
It was a good ball game, the kind the fans like, the "Whiz Kids" went all out, but Sharon's experience was too much for them, but just as expected Sharon didn't win by any 15 points as they did at Sharon. The Tigers may go on to win the section, but they won't forget last night's game in a hurry or will they call the local boys "cousins."

New Castle had the best record at the four line, 5 out of 10, to Sharon's 5 out of 11. It was a scared Tiger team that left the floor last night, but happy in the fact that they had surmounted a big obstacle—beating New Castle at Washington gym, a feat that has had them worried. Sharon Jayvees won the preliminary from New Castle 45-26.

NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 19.—Westminster's Titan basketball team was back on the campus today with a 53 to 49 victory last night over the Slippery Rock State Teachers college in their 18th win of the season for the Titans against but two setbacks. It was the second win over the Rickets this year, the other score at New Wilmington was 57 to 46 earlier in the year.

"Chuck" Dembinski, the top-scorer in the Tri-State district, was a marked man last night—the Teachers covering him like an artist covers canvases—but he still managed to get 12 points to run his total to 273—well ahead of Schaas, of West Virginia, with 247.

Heddleston Top Man
Don Heddleston was top man in the Titan scoring column with 14 points, while Coach Grover Washabaugh has uncovered a new scoring ace in Allan McCullough, freshman from Bradford, who had nine points when used as sub for Dembinski at center.

Westminster held a 12 to 8 first period lead and at the half had a 25 to 22 advantage—the Rockets winning the session 14 to 13. Westminster clung to a third period lead of 36 to 33 and in the final period jumped out in front at one time by more than ten points, until "Chinkie" Duttin, New Castle boy, got hot and threw in four field goals from all angles to narrow the gap. Harper and Duttin were the Slippery Rock scoring aces with 15 and 14 points respectively.

Play Pitt Saturday
Westminster will now concentrate on beating Pitt at Farrell Saturday night for their 19th win of the year and 48 means of enhancing their Tri-State standing. The Titans did it at Pitt recently 55-45.

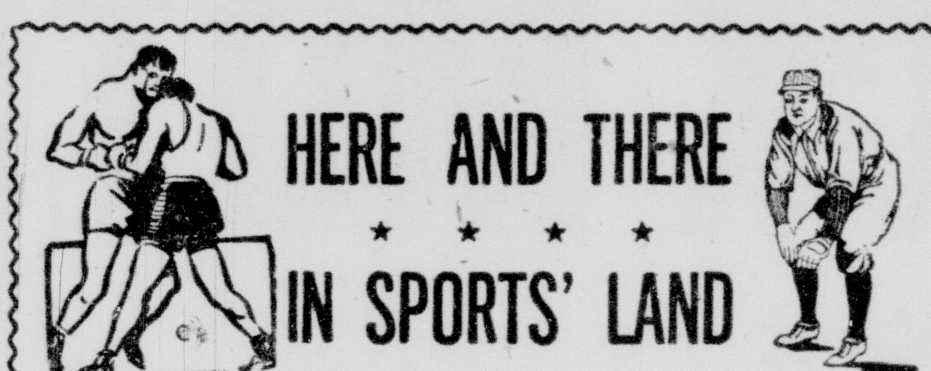

Coach Grover Washabaugh will have the Titans "up" for the Pitt clash. The next home game will be with Thiel, February 26.

East Brook Baseball Meeting Tonight

East Brook baseball team will have an important meeting tonight at 7 o'clock at the East Brook high school building, it was announced and all players interested in making the team this summer are to report. There will be an election of officers at the meeting.

CONTRARY to belief the totalisator, a machine which flashes the win, place and show bets on each horse in a race (and you're apt to hear of 'em if the horse race bill passes in Pennsylvania) and total money bet on each, does no calculating of prices. Such work must be done by man. Calculators, highly skilled in arithmetic, sit in a room behind the main betting line beneath the grandstand. These men work in pairs. Two figure the win price, two the place, and two the show. A third is assigned the task of checking the prices of each team. Betting figures are put on the totalisator board for track fans to see every time the figures do, and the figures change every 90 seconds. The human calculators work fast and accurately, and seem to have a mechanical efficiency.

George Gauthier, a fair record as head coach at Ohio Wesleyan. His teams have won 123 games, lost 98 and deadlocked in 15 during 26 years. . . . A North Carolina farmer stored honey, jellies and preserves in a cave. Four bears managed to unslip the hasp and move in, shutting the door from the inside. One of the young bears caught his paw in a jelly jar, and began crying. This yarn has the basis for a swell story to tell children at bed-time. . . . Bart Richards was all hot and bothered yesterday. He believes the World Almanac has done wrong to George Chip. It records Chip as a claimant of the middleweight title. In the next line it credits Al McCoy, as the champion. Inasmuch, as Al knocked out George, the latter should have been accredited as the champion.

Cool weather in Florida caused outdoor basketball to be a frost, as an appeal, at Miami. . . . Bo-Box won 46 of 54 twin bills last season. . . . An ugly duckling as a colt, Armed has grown up to be a beauty of a racer, with earnings of about $450,000. . . . Joe Rick, local horseman, who has a string of 17 quartered at the Rick farm, told Here & There, he intends to spend a neat sum of money on improvements, and will later on, have some brood mares there. . . . Some local fishermen are opposed to the proposal to increase the fishing license fee to $2.00. Some anglers claim the fishing situation hereabouts is similar to the game plight. . . . Twonty b long until Jack Herbert, aquatic star and life-guard, will be back life-guarding at New Wilmington's pool. His winter services are in demand in Florida. The reason for this is plain. He knows what to do in a trying situation and is courteous. . . . There'll be a 500 mile auto race at Indianapolis Speedway in May. . . . Promotion of boxing is precarious, especially when one employs a name fighter against a lesser known. The Joe Maxim vs. Marty Clark bout in Florida was a $1,900 loss. Clark was no match for Jack Kearns' fighter. . . . Primo Camera and Joe Savoldi drew $7,000, in their Miami grappling match. Da Preem failed to attract in Pittsburgh, recently.

Indications point to almost all JB workers at the JB Harmony Five vs. Regular match at 7 p. m., Saturday, at George Washington Junior high floor. . . . Dick Bartell, former New York Giant outfielder, will manage Sacramento, Pacific league, this season. . . . An alert, fast-passing Princeton five knocked the props from under a favored Union team last night at the Princeton floor, 31-26, in a definite upset.

With R. Jones playing a fine floor game and banging in nine points, the Anderson flippers took advantage of every "Scottie" miscue to dominate the contest. The first half ended in a 14-14 tie, with Princeton moving ahead to enjoy a 24-20 edge at the end of the third session.

Ellwood Takes Overtime Game From Fallsmen

Bill Eady's Last Second Field Goal Gives Wolverines 51-49 Win Over Tigers

(Special To The News)

BEAVER FALLS, Feb. 19.—With the score tied at 49-all and eight seconds remaining in the overtime period here last night, Bill Eady, Ellwood's colored forward, rang the bell for two points and defeated Beaver Falls, 51-49 in a spine-tingler before a big crowd.

Eady's clincher capped a flurry of points in the extra frame, with the count tied three or four times as the two Section III quintets battled desperately to come out on top. The loss again relegated the Tigers to the cellar and pulled Ellwood out into sixth place.

Close All The Way
The game was close all the way with the Tigers ahead by a lone point to take the first half, 18-17, after Ellwood had spurred to lead at the end of the first quarter, 11-6.

In the third period the Wolverines completely outplayed the valley five, scoring 15 to 7, but the Heeter-coached crew bounced back in the last eight minutes to dump in 17 markers to 10 and send the game into extra time. Ellwood took the added period, 9 to 7.

For Ellwood the two O'Hara brothers played brilliantly Don getting 11 points and Eddie 10. Big Mike Gregg hit for 10 also from his center spot. Mutscheller with 11 and Stacy with 15 paced the Fallsmen.

Tuesday night the Wolverines will tangle with Alliquippa in a vital section fray while the Tigers end their season at Ambridge.

Indians Have Easy Time On Home Floor As Eagles Are Outclassed In Loop Tilt

(Special To The News)
WAMPUM, Feb. 19.—Wampum high took another step closer to the Section II crown last night as they outclassed East Brook, 74-21, for their ninth win of the season. The Indians now have but one obstacle in their path to the top—Bessemer—and they will meet the Cemeneters Friday night at the latter's gym. If the Hennon team stumbles here they will be deadlocked with the Ciccone lads for the lead, since Bessemer crushed New Wilmington to remain in the running.

Last night's scoring was sparked by Dave Kanagy with 12 and Procopio with 14 as Hennon injected two teams into the fray. The Redskins led at half-time, 39-13. Wampum won the prelim, 50-25.

Chinese To Box James At Arena

Seldom Does One See Chinese In Ring; Four Champs To Box

Seldom does one see a Chinese in pugilistic action. However, there have been several who have boxed in this district in the last several decades, which brings to the fore that one, Boo Yee, Youngstown, a bantamweight, is slated to box Mike James of Akron, in a preliminary, Monday night in The Arena.

The first Chinese to box in Pittsburgh, had Tommy Bresnahan, former Dime brigade lightweight, as his opponent. It was a gruelling setto. Later on, Long Sing Que, accompanied Johnny Keyes, mayor of New York's Chinatown here. He fought a good fight in Jolly bowl.

Then, came Foo Yee to the Arena. Foo Yee put everything he had into his bout, and after watching Foo Yee, his brother, who is none other than Boo Yee, yearned for fistic action and he, too, is now a devotee of amateur boxing.

Blender Battles Santillo
In addition to the seeing a Chinaman battle, fans will see some husky bouts of punch, in other bouts as follows:

Bob Blending, Pittsburgh vs. Cosmo Santillo, Youngstown, heavyweights.
Vic Kondik, GG champion, Akron vs. Carl Rouse, GG champion, Youngstown, 147.
Jim Gillespie, GG runner-up, Akron, vs. Frank Wooten, Youngstown, 160.

Ronald Delaney, GG champion, Akron vs. Van Royle, GG champion, Youngstown, 135.
John Paoletti, GG champion, Akron vs. Don De Marinis, Youngstown, 135.

Two other bouts remain to be made by the Jefferson A. C.

Duca D'Abruzzis Honor Athletes At Fine Dinner

Eighty Present At Croton Cafe Tuesday Evening, Hear Fine Speeches

Duca D'Abruzzi paid homage last night to the various athletic teams that represent the popular Croton club at a banquet staged in a Croton avenue cafe and 80 young men attended the swell affair.

At 6:30 o'clock the athletes sat down to steaming plates of spaghetti and meat balls, then to top it off chicken and salad for a very delectable meal that left few with hunger unappeased.

Have Speaking Program
Following the dinner the club asked Charles "Bugs" Wallther of The News sport staff to take over as toastmaster and the next hour was devoted to speech making. First to speak was Perry Lastoria, president of the Duca D'Abruzzi club, and he thanked the young men for their splendid cooperation in their athletic endeavors, and said that the club is planning a bigger athletic program for this year.

Sheriff Frank Coen, who will manage the Dukes this year in baseball spoke next and promised them a real championship team with their support. The sheriff as usual told several amusing stories and made a decided hit. Michael "Jake" Babovsky, secretary and treasurer of the City Baseball league, and a well known local banker was the next speaker and gave his usual fine outlay of well chosen words, expressing himself as being gratified at being present at such a grand affair.

The following managers and cap-

DUCA D'ABRUZZIS HONOR ATHLETES

Members of the various Duca D'Abruzzo athletic teams responded to toasts: Willie Lastoria of the baseball team, Louis Malls of the golf team, Jimmy Valentino of the softball team, Eddie Malley of the basketball team, and Sammy Malizia of the bowling team.

The following members of the Duca D'Abruzzo sports committee were introduced and spoke briefly: Domenico Leonelli, chairman in the absence of Charles DiMuccio who is hospitalized; Frank Cook, Louis Malls, and Perry Lastoria, the latter serving until DiMuccio returns. Nick Memo, another member of the committee, was not present last night. Phil Perrotta spoke briefly.

Hughes Gets Ovation
The members present last night gave quite an ovation to Jimmy Hughes, a pitcher with the Ducks last year, who has been signed by the Pirates for their Hornell, New York state league farm. He leaves shortly for training.

Prior to the banquet the assembled guests stood with bowed heads in honor of two boys who were members of the Ducks athletic teams but who gave their lives in France during the past world war: Cubby DeLorenzo and Jimmy DeLorenzo.

It was a swell party and the boys had a good time, thanks to Perry Lastoria and Louis Malls who worked hard in arranging the details of the banquet.

Titan Swimmers Seek Second Win

NEW WILMINGTON, Feb. 19.—Coach Harold Burry's Westminster swimmers are looking for their second win, but today doesn't look like the day. Slippery Rock State Teachers' well balanced team is expected to score its second victory against the Titan tankmen.

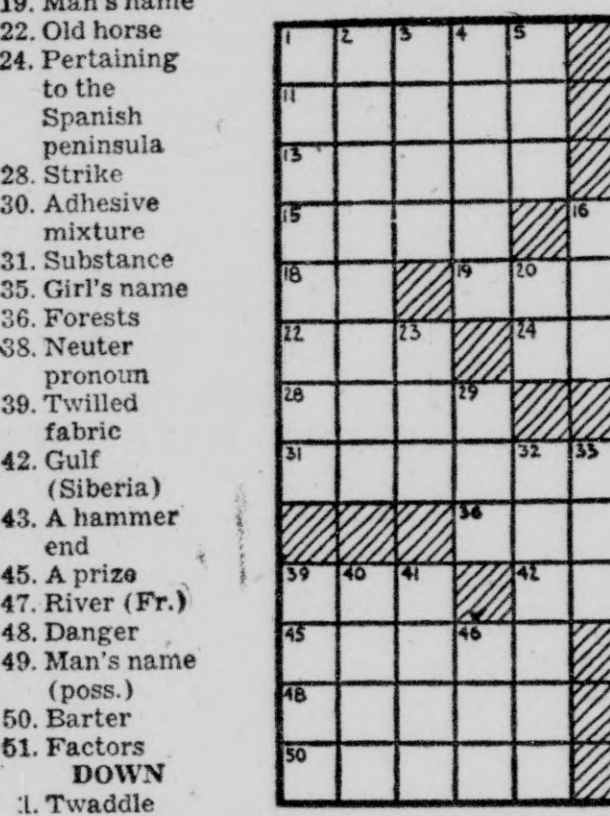

Westminster was able to win but two firsts in the meeting at Slippery Rock, the Rocket swimmers winning 58-18. Ted Holt, who has been a consistent winner for the Titans, captured the backstroke, and Bob Hall won the 440-yard free style.

Westminster will entertain Edinboro on February 22, with the Carnegie Tech swimmers here on the 26th.

New Orleans is the second largest seaport in the United States.

Pennsylvania Railroad Operates At Loss For First Time In History

Because of large wage increases, retroactive to the first of the year, with pyramiding costs of materials and supplies, and the postponement of relief through increased freight rates until the end of the year, the Pennsylvania Railroad, in 1946, for the first time in its hundred years of history, operated its business at a loss. Nevertheless, more freight and passengers were carried than in any previous peacetime year.

"With the volume of business handled," says President M. W. Clement, in the railroad's 100th annual report made public today, "the company should have had a substantial net income, which—after taxes—would have provided for a normal dividend as well as a sum equal thereto to be spent on the property. This would have been good for the country, for the company, for the employees and for the stockholders."

The unsatisfactory results for the year were due very largely to the impact of the forces of government regulation.

The report emphasizes that the increase in freight rates of approximately 17.6%, finally authorized by the Interstate Commerce Commission, effective January 1, 1947, is wholly inadequate to meet the increased costs imposed upon the railroad and sustain the industry in a healthy and progressive condition.

Deficit Given

The deficit for 1946 was $8,530,317, compared with a net income of $49,008,238, in 1945. To the deficit was added $2,320,199, covering construction expenditures and advances to leased and affiliated companies, borne by the Pennsylvania Railroad. This brought the total loss to $10,850,516, which was charged to profit and loss.

Operating revenues for the year of $822,007,585 showed a decrease of $114,445,826, due to decline in war traffic and strikes in major industries. Operating expenses were $745,676,400.

The operating ratio—the proportion of operating revenues required to pay operating expenses—was 90.71%, as against 83.71% in 1945. "This operating ratio," says President Clement, "should not go above 70%."

Net railway operating income—operating revenues less operating expenses, taxes, and equipment and joint facility rents—represented a return of less than 1% on the investment in road and equipment. This was the lowest return in the history of the company and compares with 3.09% in 1945, 3.92% in 1944, 4.62% in 1943 and 5.35% in 1942.

Dividends Paid

Notwithstanding the fact that the total cost of doing business during the year was not fully earned, dividends aggregating 3%, of $1.50 per share, were paid. It is explained that it was only from money earned in previous years that it was possible to make this distribution, but with employees benefitting from wage increases and suppliers from higher prices for their materials, the management believed "the stockholders should also be considered."

Following the precedents of a number of years, there was again a substantial reduction of funded debt during 1946. The net scaling down of the funded debt held by the public, in the companies comprising the Pennsylvania Railroad System, amounted to $13,864,972. For the eight years 1939 to 1946, inclusive, the net reduction totals $179,510,388. From 1943 to 1946, inclusive, approximately $310,000,000 of System bonded indebtedness, has been refinanced, from which there will be savings of over $100,000,000 during the life of the bonds. In the same period, over $150,000,000 of bonds of jointly owned companies were refunded at lower rates, which will result in substantial additional savings to the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Keystone Minstrels Have Reunion Party

On Tuesday evening, a group of men formerly known as the Keystone Minstrel Entertainers, in surprise fashion, gathered at the home of Bert Sanford, leader of the organization, on Wilmington avenue. The quartette, Bert Sanford, Ches Biddle, Dave Jones, Dan Jenkins, latter now of Sharon, was organized in 1910 and functioned for twenty years.

Also present and belonging to the group were George Roof, Hugh Hanna, Archie Cubbison, Bill Sappho Jones, and the latter's son, Ben Jones Jr.

The group again joined in singing a number of the old selections with perfect curbstone harmony. It was decided that a reunion of this kind would be an annual event.

Bert Sanford, Hugh Hanna, and Sappho Jones are three of the five remaining members surviving of the twenty-one Imperial Minstrel Singers organized in 1901, later organized and becoming the Keystone Minstrels in 1910.

Mrs. Sanford served a delicious lunch, assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Olive McConaghey.

Beware Coughs Following Flu

After the flu is over and gone, the cough that follows may develop into chronic bronchitis if neglected. Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm, and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.
